

FULL POWER.

Chinese Envoys Empowered to Treat for Peace.

Both Countries Are Anxious to Conclude Hostilities.

The Japanese Envoys Chen-Yuen and Ting-Yuen, Chinese Envoys Chen-Yuen and Ting-Yuen, Chinese Envoys Chen-Yuen and Ting-Yuen.

LOAN, Feb. 8.—The Central News correspondent in Shanghai telegraphs: "The peace envoys have been fully empowered to treat, and will remain in Japan. Both countries are anxious to conclude the war, but Japan does not mean to leave China a loophole for backing out."

The correspondent of the Central News at Wei-Hai-Wei telegraphs, under date of February 7, that the Chinese plenipotentiary Chen-Yuen and Ting-Yuen have been sent.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The Chinese plenipotentiary, Chen-Yuen and Ting-Yuen, reported to have been sent, were the most powerful ships belonging to an Asiatic power. They were sent to the Yalu river, where they were to be sunk, but escaped with slight injuries.

LOAN, Feb. 8.—A special dispatch from Shanghai to the Central News reports that five Japanese warships continued to bombard the island at Wei-Hai-Wei, and the Wei-Yan fleet of Chinese war vessels, which are lying in the harbor. The Japanese report that the work is much more difficult than they expected it to be, but they are confident that the forts will be taken within a few days, as their defenders will soon be starved out.

It is expected that the Japanese will either engage the Japanese ships or be destroyed by Admiral Ting, to prevent the vessels from falling into the hands of the Japanese. The Japanese, retreating from Wei-Hai-Wei, continue to arrive at Che-Foo.

A Central News dispatch from Tokyo says the ministry of marine has received reports that on account of the extreme cold the naval operations at Wei-Hai-Wei have been suspended. From January 31 until February 3 the squadron maintained a heavy bombardment upon the forts at Zhili and Eastern Lin-Kung, but the Japanese kept up the fight each day until dark. Lately the firing from the Zhili fort has become greatly diminished. The principal Japanese squadron has been waiting outside the bay, expecting the Chinese fleet would make a sortie, but in this the Japanese were disappointed.

A Chinese prisoner states that Admiral Ting has ordered that although the defenses on the island are being maintained, the Japanese fleet must remain inside the bay and defend the fort at Lin-Kung to the last extremity.

He does not appear to be in a hurry about asserting his right to be Governor.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 8.—Hon. H. Clay Evans, who Wednesday took the oath of office as governor of Tennessee, does not appear to be in a hurry about asserting his right to be Governor. No legal steps have yet been taken to compel the delivery of the executive office into his hands. It is probable course will be to perform some act required of the governor and then call on the courts to enforce his authority. Some of his associates urged that he await the conclusion of the investigation to be made of alleged frauds by the legislative committee appointed for that purpose before making any further move. This advice is founded on the belief that the investigation is turned to the right by the committee.

MINERS STILL IN NEED.

NELSONVILLE, O., Feb. 8.—Reports at present show that the condition among the destitute miners does not improve any, and, if anything, is growing worse. Aid will be needed here as long as the present slack work exists in the mines, and at present there are no indications of it growing better.

Wrecked at Sea.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., Feb. 8.—The after part of a good-sized vessel, covered with ice, with two men on board, was the lifeless bodies of three men, frozen in the ice and frozen to the top of the cabin. The bodies were found by Paul's Point, Lambert's Cove, on the north side of this island.

Herald Point Frozen.

Cattle Dying in Snow.

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 8.—A howling blizzard, with the wind blowing fifty miles an hour, is prevailing throughout northern Texas. It is the worst storm in years. Thousands of cattle are dying from exposure.

Hayard for Senator.

DIVIDE, Del., Feb. 8.—The name of Ambassador to England Thomas F. Bayard was brought into the senatorial race Thursday. The local press is unbroken. Two ballots were cast. Bayard received three votes on the thirty-sixth ballot.

IN THE HOUSE.

After Routine Business the Debate on the Bond Bill Was Resumed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The house met at 11 o'clock Thursday. Some routine business was transacted before the debate on the bond bill was resumed. Bills were passed as follows:

To give homesteaders preference rights in the construction of a new bridge over the Mississippi river at Sioux City; to pension at the rate of $800 per month the widow of the late Brig. Gen. J. C. McLean, late adjutant general, U. S. A.; for the relief of Catherine Cain.

Mr. Grosvenor asked unanimous consent for the consideration of a bill for resolution for the appointment of a committee to investigate the validity of the election in Tennessee last November.

"I object to the consideration of that question," shouted Mr. Cox, of Tennessee. "The state of Tennessee can take care of itself."

The house then went into committee of the whole and resumed the consideration of the bill for the appointment of a committee to investigate the validity of the election in Tennessee last November.

The pending question was on the appointment of a committee to investigate the validity of the election in Tennessee last November. The house then went into committee of the whole and resumed the consideration of the bill for the appointment of a committee to investigate the validity of the election in Tennessee last November.

The chair was sustained, but the bill was not passed.

Mr. Clifton moved an amendment providing that such bonds of the denomination of $20, $50 and $100 could be disposed of should be deposited for sale with national banks selected by the secretary of the treasury.

Mr. Sticks made an eloquent appeal for the passage of the pending bill. He believed, he said, that the deliberations of the house on this question marked an important epoch in the history of this country. It was not a financial matter, he frankly admitted, but he desired to express his deep sense of the importance of this measure and his sincere belief that the welfare and honor of his country were involved in today's action upon it. He had occasion to reflect on the past with the choice of his own party, but he forgot those differences when he witnessed the brave, manly action of the president in the present financial crisis.

BLAZE AT INDIANAPOLIS.

A Bad Fire Breaks Out at the Heaton Hotel. The Guests Panic Stricken.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 8.—The Denison hotel, the largest in this city, took fire at 10 o'clock today morning. The flames burned through the partitions and got into three floors in two wings of the building before the firemen got it.

From the first the fire was a bad one, and four alarms were sent in, in succession. The guests in the big building became panic-stricken and rushed frantically through the corridors to the elevators and stairways. One guest was nearly suffocated in his room by the dense smoke, and would have miserably perished had not a chambermaid discovered the half unconscious man and carried him to the street.

News of the fire was conveyed to them and the two houses adjoined in the dense smoke and would have miserably perished had not a chambermaid discovered the half unconscious man and carried him to the street.

The weather was bitterly cold, and the frozen surface of the city was being frosted. Many of the members of the legislature had apartments in the hotel, and had valuable property and papers in their rooms.

News of the fire was conveyed to them and the two houses adjoined in the dense smoke and would have miserably perished had not a chambermaid discovered the half unconscious man and carried him to the street.

ALLIANCE, O., Feb. 8.—Four more cases of diphtheria are reported from this county, just as the city Thursday morning, showing that the scourge is spreading rapidly. MARSHFIELD, O., Feb. 8.—While logging at Harlem Springs John Teller was crushed by a piece of timber that rolled over his breast. He was completely paralyzed, and is dying.

Fort Worth at Fort Worth.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Feb. 8.—The weather here is the coldest known for years, the thermometer registering 3 degrees below zero. Trains are delayed several hours. Cattle are suffering.

TO CALL A HALT.

So Far and No Farther Can Japan Go in China.

Alleged Attitude of Russia, England, France and United States.

Toward the War Between Japan and China. The Powers Will Wait Until China Attains Herself Vainly.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—A dispatch to the Times from Paris says that the Russian envoys have received instructions as to the attitude which Russia, England and France, and through Russia's intervention, the United States intends to take on the question raised by the war between China and Japan. According to the Times' correspondent it has been decided that the eventual intervention of these powers at the present moment shall be absolutely determined. China will be asked in her own interests as well as in those of the civilized world to open her ports, seeing that the present system has led to China's powerlessness and ruin. The powers will wait until China admits her responsibility and sincerely negotiates for peace. It will then be pointed out to Japan that Europe can not allow her to annex an inch of the Chinese mainland, and that the impossibility does not exist in regard to other annexation which will be open to discussion. There will be no intervention concerning vessels, arms and other booty, until a war indemnity. This question must be settled between the combatants. No objection will be raised to Japan retaining certain positions as pledges of payment. But no commercial stipulations will be permitted. The whole world is to profit by any opening of the ports or liberty to neutralize into the interior of China. Finally the powers will insist that the Chinese currency in the future be to be on the European plan, in order to facilitate the return of foreign loan to which China will be obliged to resort.

New York, Feb. 8.—Dispatches received in this city indicate that the men from the American warship Concord, who were seized by natives near Chin Kwang, have been released.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

The Claims Made Respecting the Indiana Free and Safety Bill.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 8.—A new light was thrown Thursday upon the pending free and safety bill. It is a measure fixing the pay of county and state officers. It is one of the most important laws to be passed by the present legislature. County and state officers are bringing every influence to bear upon the senators and representatives to secure liberal salaries.

Thursday it was said upon good authority that the bill as now proposed could be carried to the supreme court upon a constitutional question. The present form of the bill violates the provisions of a constitutional amendment, adopted in 1881, which provides that no appeal law for fees and salaries shall be passed, unless based upon population or work required. The fee and salary bill, in the form now pending, is a local law providing in separate paragraphs for the various counties; but it is not based upon population or work required, as the constitutional amendments stipulates.

An eminent judge of the state says that while the bill is fair, the amendment upon which it is based is unfair. The constitution, he said, can be interpreted only as meaning that fees and salaries must be fixed according to a classification of counties by population and the work to be done. If a new law is to be passed, the salaries by every legislature, the salaries be fixed arbitrarily, the parties in power on each time increase salaries in the counties which will carry the money for purposes of corruption.

Two More Elsie Victims.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—The fishing smack Speculator arrived at Lowestoft Thursday morning, bringing the bodies of two of the Elsie passengers. The bodies had gone and a gold watch, and the clothing was marked "M. D." Upon the other body was a key, and a "Marine Safe Co., New York, 6711," and another key stamped "L. L. Bates & Co., Boston." The body brought ashore Wednesday which was supposed to be that of Chief Steward Pechinier, is now believed to be that of Herr Hertmann, the musical director of the Elsie. The coroner's inquest at Lowestoft has been adjourned to February 20.

Mother and Child Burned.

SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 8.—Fire Thursday morning at Priebe's, three miles north of Scranton, destroyed three large double blocks, in one of which a mother and child were killed. The bodies were found in a charred condition. Chopchop's wife and 7-year-old child were burned to death.

No Legislation, Says Allison.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Feb. 8.—Senator Allison says, in a letter to a friend in this city, that there will be no legislation on issues during the present session of congress. Consideration of the appropriation bills will occupy the senate to the exclusion of other matters.
